

WE'RE HIRING: Wreck Room Coach

The Wreck Room at Roundhouse is up and running and we are looking to add to our team of engaging, cooperative, and enthusiastic coaches to the greater Roundhouse Crew.

The Wreck Room is the first-of-its-kind axe-throwing venue in the Brainerd Lakes area. The role of the Coach will be to monitor safety, provide axe-throwing instruction and facilitate axe-throwing experiences, assist with the management of bookings, serve craft beer and other beverages, assist with upkeep of target and axe-throwing equipment, keep a safe and clean workspace, engage younger patrons in non-axe-throwing activities, and more as we expand in scope.

A great candidate for the position of Coach is . . .

- Flexible
- Team-focused
- Communicative
- Fun
- Supportive of others
- Passionate about craft beer
- Willing to learn & grow
- Safety-minded

Preferred: Coaching/teaching experience, service industry experience, some college experience or pursuit of higher education

Required: 18+ years old, high school diploma or equivalent, reliable transportation

Hours expectation: Year-round; part-time, up to 25 hours/week; mostly afternoons and evenings and weekends.

This position includes the opportunity for tips.
Roundhouse will provide axe-throwing training.

To apply, go to roundhousebrew.com/work to fill out an application. Send applications and questions to info@roundhousebrew.com